

Personal data that we collect via the Extended Profile form

The following information is collected and will appear from your donor profile on our website, except information about your name, email and civil registration number. Information marked with a star is always collected. The other information is voluntary and is only collected if you have provided it to us.

Personal data

- Name, email and information about the Cryos department where you are donating (Will not appear from your profile on our website, but is collected in order to ensure proper identification)
- Information about your physical characteristics
(build, face, hair, etc.)
- Information about your level of education and your work experience
(for instance education and graduation year, total years of school completed, former and current employment*, voluntary work, military service, if any*, mother tongue*, how many languages you master*)
- Information about your personality
(e.g. strengths and weaknesses, marital status, leisure interest and activities, e.g. in sports and music, lifestyle in terms of travelling, sleep, food and exercise, childhood memories, idols, goals and values, major experiences, literature, movies, etc.).
- Information about family relationships

Any children* and a description of him or her, information about family, description of physical characteristics and education and occupation as regards parents, grandparents and brothers and sisters*
- A handwritten greeting with information about your motivation for becoming a donor, one or several baby pictures of you and the date when the form was completed.

Confidential information

- Civil registration number (CPR number). (Does not appear from your profile on the website but is collected by Cryos when you fill in the form in order to ensure proper identification.)

Sensitive personal data

- Information about allergies, any medical treatment, any vision impairment/use of glasses, physical abnormalities or illness and your parents', brothers' and sisters' and grandparents' race and ethnicity.